

$200,000 For Land Acquisition

The capital outlay budget recently approved by Gov. Michael Dukakis, provided funds for the purchase by the state of some 60 or more acres of land bordering the Harold Parker State Forest in Andover.

Rep. Gerald Cohen of Andover reported that $200,000 was contained in the budget for the acquisition of the Pettigrew land which abuts conservation commission and Andover Village Improvement Society holdings off Salem street.

The land, when acquired, will provide for a combined town-state "green" area and a contiguous band of conservation land in the area.

To Enforce Stable Bylaws

Rainy Day Activity

Tara Sullivan, six, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Sullivan, 84 Rattlesnake Hill Road, passes the time away during a rainy day program at West playground. Despite inclement weather this week, the youngsters were provided plenty of activities, as Tara indicates with her cutting of paper designs.

As a result of complaints received regarding stable operations by Mohammed Khusro of Jenkins Road, selectmen this week requested the town manager to direct the building inspector to issue cease and desist orders to operators of stables in violation of the zoning bylaws.

The action, not directed solely at Khusro, will effect all stable or horse boarding places, in town, and the building inspector at midweek was in the process of checking the bylaws and properties which may be in violation.

Also, the board has asked the manager to request the planning board to come up with a bylaw revision for the October town meeting covering the maintaining of a stable, which would be applicable more or less to personal use.

Current bylaws prohibit stabling or boarding of horses at a cost, or in general terms, operating a business.

Selectmen took the action after receiving complaints about the controversial Khusro operation on Jenkins Road. The particular operation has been a problem of long standing, stemming back to over a year ago, when North Reading refused to supply water to the property for the maintaining of horses there.

North Reading officials were willing to continue to supply water for domestic use only. Khusro had asked the town to provide relief, which Andover failed to do. North Reading officials contended Khusro was using water for the stable operations and maintenance of several horses.

After receipt of the latest complaints from Jenkins Road neighbors, the selectmen decided to take the "cease and desist" action, which has 180 days for implementation.

Town Manager Jared S.A. Clark said that as a result of the complaints, the board began an inquiry and ultimately decided that in order to respond in an equitable manner, all such stabling operations, irregardless of the magnitude, must be effected.

There are at least 11 stable or boarding operations for horses in the community at present. Since the current bylaw precludes any operation of this sort, it was deemed necessary to have the order issued to all.

But, a change in the bylaw, if approved at the town meeting in October, would allow the continued maintenance of barns or stables for private use.

The planning board has been asked to come up with a bylaw which would allow residents to keep horses, but would not

To Seek Funds For Field Maintenance

The Finance Committee will be requested to transfer $3,500 from the reserve fund to provide for maintenance of the Sacred Heart fields this fall.

Town Manager Jared S.A. Clark told selectmen this week that he would ask for that amount of money just to provide materials in order to hold the existing turf.

Proper maintenance of the fields would require additional sums and would be requested in next year's budget, Clark said.

The matter was presented to the board following an inquiry as to whether the fields would be available for the youth soccer program this fall. Thomas Clarke of Lovejoy Road, an interested parent, said there were over 850 youngsters registered for the fall soccer program and he had concern about the availability of facilities.

Town Manager Clark advised that before organizations commit a program it would be better to find if facilities would be available to accomodate them. In this regard, he said, the recreation/community schools department has written to groups in the town in an effort to determine demand and need for fields and other facilities in order to properly plan for their assignment.

Students Record History

"Taking Care of Their Heritage: A Compendium of Oral Accounts," a book composed entirely of photos and interview with twelve of Andover's citizens, has recently been published under the auspices of the Andover public schools. The book, which was printed by the Graphics Department of Andover High School, is the first step in a program which is expanding and growing.

In September of 1977, Sean Kennan, a CETA worker, joined the Andover School Department and began to initiate several programs which aimed at bringing students and older citizens of Andover together. One of the programs was the Oral History project. The basic premise of oral history is that students and other can learn a great deal about certain historical events from people who have had immediate experience or contact with that event.

The program has an obvious value to history students. Less obvious are the related skills that students develop and acquire while assimilating the history. Interviewing a stranger requires that the student develop speaking and listening skills. The student must be spontaneous and be able to develop a sense of rapport with the subject. The interviews further required that the students make appointments and correspond when necessary. Naturally, they gained valuable experience in writing and organization in preparing the interviews for print.

Most of the interviews conducted during this past year deal with the development of the local area, and Andover in particular. Many of the people interviewed also provided a good picture of what it was like to grow up in the first part of the twentieth century. Some of the interviews also touch upon such major events as the Depression and the World Wars. Each subject was interviewed for at least one hour, some for as many as five or six hours. All of the interviews were taped and transcribed. The 50 students who participated used the transcriptions in preparing the articles for print. Some students were involved in filming some of the people interviewed. These films are in the final stages of editing at the present time.

Recently the Andover School Committee appropriated funds to allow Mr. Kennan to continue coordinating the program for the next school year. Interviews will again be conducted and another publication prepared. At this time it is planned to continue with interviews regarding local history, and to also do some work on Vaudeville and the Big Bands as there are a number of local people who have had experience in these areas.

The book is now on sale at the Andover Book Store for $4. The proceeds from any sales will be used to help defray printing costs for this year and to establish a small fund to cover minor expenses for next year.

Appointments Approved

Philip J. Salamone

Former Selectman Philip J. Salamone, 9 Clarisbrooke St., has been appointed a member of the Recreation/Community Schools committee by Town Manager

Jared S.A. Clark.

His appointment was confirmed by selectmen Monday night.

Salamone served as selectman last year, appointed to fill the vacancy caused by resignation. His appointment to the recreation committee brings that board to within one member of a full compliment.

Selectmen Monday night also confirmed the appointment of Planning Board Member Paul Teplitz as the town's alternate representative to the Merrimack Valley Planning Commission.

In other personnel matters Monday night, Clark informed the selectmen of his intent to form a subcommittee to develop specifications for a town audit, the committee to be composed of Accountant Wendell Mattheson, Collector-Treasurer Myron H. Muise, Assistant Manager Sheldon S. Cohen, FinCom Chairman Donn Byrne and a member of the board of selectmen.

Put Recyclables Out Early

The Recycling Committee reports that Stanley Nabydowski Brothers of Andover is the new recycling pickup contractor for the town, starting this month. Due to the change of contractors, the Recycling Calendar for fiscal 1978-79 has not been printed yet.

One important change to note immediately is that the new contractor will now begin curbside pickup at 7:30 a.m. instead of 8 a.m.

Newspapers will be picked up the weeks of Aug. 7 and Aug. 21; clear glass and cans the week of Aug. 14, and colored glass and cans the week of Aug. 28.

West Junior High Registration

Andover West Junior High School will hold registration days on Monday, Aug. 28 and Tuesday, Aug. 29, from 9-12 noon, for all students new to Andover.

Grade 7, 8, and 9 students who live west of the Boston and Maine railroad line and are entering the Andover Public Schools for the first time will register at the guidance office at the West Junior High School located on Shawsheen Road.

Student Government President Elise Balboni is in charge of orientating new students to the facility. She will be assisted by student government officers.

Mrs. Alice Buffington and Thomas McKenna, guidance counselors, will be available to prepare programs and answer questions.

William E. Hart, school principal, will be available to both parents and students should they wish to discuss any matter related to the West Junior High program, policies and practices.

Water Bill Adjustment Under Study

Town Manager Jared S.A. Clark Monday night was prepared to ask the selectmen to approve the $40 adjustment on water bills sent too Shawsheen residents effected by poor water quality problems this past year. The matter had been proposed at a meeting with residents a few weeks ago.

But, Selectman Susan T. Poore suggested the manager confer with residents again on the matter. She said that she heard from some in the area who had devised alternate proposals providing financial relief.

Clark said he would confer with them and make his recommendations at a subsequent meeting.

Water quality in the village has improved following the flushing of mains in the area with the foam-plug method. Public works Director told selectmen Monday night he was optimistic that the improved quality would be maintained, but

Carillon Concert Tuesday

The last in the current series of six summer carillon recitals on the 37-bell Samuel Lester Fuller carillon in Memorial Tower, Phillips Academy, will be given on Tuesday evening, Aug. 8, at 7 p.m.

The carillonneur will be Edward B. Gammons of Andover.

Gammons, a graduate of Harvard University, was organist, choirmaster and carillonneur of St. Stephen's Church in Cohasset from 1927 to 1937. He was the first president of the Guild of Carillonneurs in North America. For over 30 years he served as head of the music department at the Groton School, retiring from that position in 1974. Presently he is organist and choirmaster of St. Paul's Episcopal church in North Andover.

The public is invited free of charge. Bring blankets, chairs, picnic suppers. Printed programs and descriptive brochures about the carillon are available in the stand at the base of the tower. The best listening area is the lawn opposite the gymnasium between Bulfinch Hall and the tower fence. Parking is available along Salem Street and in the Admissions Office and Gymnasium parking areas.

Millie and Amy English enjoy a morning swim at Pumps Pond as part of the SPARC Park program conducted by the Recreation/Community schools summer program.

At The Playgrounds

Ballardvale

Although the hot weather may have discouraged some, down in Ballardvale we're still going strong. We started off the week practicing for Good Sports. Wednesday we took a field trip to Friendly's to cool off with an ice cream. Julie Madden, Timmy Nolan, Danny Mischar, and Steven Mill were among a few of the participants.

While the older crowd was at Friendly's, the younger children were busy back on the playground making airplanes in woodworking. Richie Meyers, Angie Culiani, and Ann Mernane had the most colorful as well as creative aircrafts. Thursday was devoted to s'mores making and arts and crafts. Rejji Hayes was awarded the prize for consuming more s'mores than any other person on the playground. Friday the playgrounds were closed for Good Sports at Doherty School. Although we didn't win everyone had a good time. Amy Thompson placed in the I.Q. test. The other contestants were the Conley, Yonaker, Crokes and Mischar families.

Shawsheen

We had a very hectic week trying to prepare for the fourth annual Good Sports Competition. With, Amy, Joyce, Holly, and Ann Marie Getting dizzy (izzy) we were off to a good start.

Bobby Charland showed us that he's the master of bubble gum and Penny ran away on the stilts. Mike Romano showed his skill with his frisbee and Joey Cormier overcame some obstacles.

Andy Frost showed us that he can pop balloons as quick as anyone. Then came Friday and Shawsheen showed what it was made of as we came from behind in a great team effort to pull an upset over three-time champ, South. It was a 1 point victory and everybody put in great efforts to contribute to the victory.

We'd like to congratulate every other playground for the good efforts and a fine display of sportsmanship, and mostly to thank Bruce and his staff for running an exciting competition.

West Elementary

All the good sports at West joined forces and came in fifth in the 'Good Sports Competition' held at Doherty Playground on Friday. Some of our outstanding good sports were Jenny Starr, Michele Gildea, Karyn Martin, Mark and John Haddad, Chris and Peter Lyons, Christine and Mark Hashem, Timmy Smith, Amy Skinder, Nancy Butler, David Stewart, Michele Gianonni, Billy Lewis, and Bonnie Amsterdam. The kids really did a terrific job especially at the tug-of-war. Our congratulations to Shawsheen for winning the competition and to Doherty for doing such a great job as host playground.

Greaser's Day was a success and some of the costumes were out of sight. The Laverne Look-a-Like prize went to Michele Gianonni and Leslie Wilkinson. The Shirley Look-a-Like went to Lala Goodman and the Fonzie award went to V.J. who is visiting from Philadelphia. Jenny Starr won the goldfish eating contest (Pepperage Farm goldfish of course) and David Morrow won the Blueberry pie eating contest. We also danced to the music of the Beach Boy's. Sha-Na-Na and Grease."

Our Pet Show was on Wednesday and we had animals of every color, shape and size. Thursday our softball team traveled to Doherty while the rest of us made candles and had a cook-out.

Next week we are looking forward to our trip to Benson's Wild Animal Farm. We are also planning a trip to the bowling alleys. On Monday we are going to make paper mache face masks with Barry and we will be having a bake sale on Thursday. So if you have a sweet tooth, visit us on Thursday!

Pre-School

Many new kids were welcomed to the Pre-school playground this week, as the second session began.

Monday's activities began with parachute games which included Sajini Shetty and Gret deBeer as human flyers. The week's woodworking project was a toy top, and Todd Blaustein and Ryan Walshe thoroughly enjoyed spinning their creations.

All of the kids were treated to a pancake snack for their cooking class, and the maple syrup was the hit of the day.

The west pre-schoolers participated in their own mini-olympics on Thursday. All kids received awards for their outstanding efforts, with the best athletes being Todd Alberathy, Hillary Driscoll, Allissa Ginsberg, Diane DeRoses, and Chris Shea.

We plan to visit Shawsheen playground for a sprinkler party on Friday in order to climaz our highly successful week.

The last week of Pre-School Playground's first session ended at both the West and Doherty Elementary Schools. It was a busy final week for everyone involved.

Rain on Monday gave the children a chance to work together in the art room. They had a chance to sample various aspects of artwork. Busy at the sculpture table working with clay were Stephanie Ruel, Matthew Brodsky, Rachel Dix, Marcia Gemmell, Denny Goodwin, and Elizabeth Julioni. Ryan Walshe was quite proud of his well designed cave. Jeremy Kahan created pancakes and a few snakes. At the popsicle stick design table Shawna LaFauci made a basket, Laura Koer Kel created a lovely box for trinkets, Kathleen O'Brien designed her own house, and other children used sticks to represent the first letter in their name. Up in the loft, some children drew pictures with magic markers. Others worked on a large 24-piece wooden puzzle.

Mike Silverman, a leader with the preschoolers supervised all the artists in the group with brush painting. Brendan O'Leary made a dragon, Kieran McManus painted Humpty Dumpty, Sajini Shetti made a design, and Laura Koer Kel produced a lovely woman. Gregory Gigliotti seemed to enjoy this activity best of all by the rainbow of colors on his shirt.

The day ended with a sing-a-long and making popcorn with the cooking teacher. Many young artists were discovered at the West on Tuesday. They included Brian Landry, Maryanne Campbell, Leanna Mills, Tanya Tomarkin, Kevin Smith, Diane DeRosa, Sarah Fortell, Steve Sintros, and Todd Blaustein.

The woodworking specialist helped the children at West this week making old fashioned spinning tops from scratch. Jennifer Cauicchi, Rachel Butler, Debra Flashenberg, Allissa Ginsberg, Matthew Haskell, Mark Hopkinson, Todd Blais, and John Spignesi enjoyed putting them together and taking them home.

Highlights of the entire first session included a trip to recreation park on the school bus and picnicing there with the West group as well as a trip by bus to Pomps Pond for swimming with the Doherty group. A sprinkler party cooled off the Doherty group on Friday with this week's heatwave. They also had an outdoor barbecue.

Thanks for joining us for the first session extends from Supervisor Karen Sullivan, leaders Katy Normandy, Sue Pelletier, Mike Silverman, and Marilyn Carrier; aides Sue Petrella and Mary Lou Petrella; and our volunteer Mike Flieder.

SPARC Park

Another week has flown by and the summer is more than half over. On Tuesday and Thursday we have swimming at Pomps Pond, Friday is a field trip day, and lately there have been trips on Wednesdays. So it seemed unusual that everyone stayed at the playground for the whole day on Monday playing field hockey, kickball and baseball.

Our Tuesday car wash at Pomps was a great success. After swimming we stayed in our bathing suits and sponged and hosed the cars and each other! Wednesday some of our people visited the Travel Agency to pick up brochures of different countries for ideas for next week's International Travel Day. Others visited the Earth Food Store and Butler's Pantry and both places treated us to samples of some of their goodies. We ended that busy morning with a cookout and s'mores back at South.

Thursday was Sports Day, and prizes were awarded to the best-dressed: Elise Pelrine, a tennis champion and Mark Nixon, a baseball star. A skier showed up looking for snow, and someone even came looking for a rodeo, while football, baseball, and tennis players along with joggers played sports tag against the referees.

Friday was miniature golfing day in North Andover with pizza for lunch, which was enjoyed by all. Liz gave us counselors a delicious start that morning with a cheese and mushroom quiche. And since it was his last day with us, we wish Robert Kidwell much luck in his upcoming job in Lowell.

Escapologist Harry Houdini's real name was Ehrich Weiss.

Inside The Sea

The Peabody Museum of Salem has all its fish in one tank; the live ones at any rate. The Museum's Natural History Department has a new saltwater aquarium where you can watch some of the creatures who lurk at the tides' edge.

Sea anemones wave their airy tentacles while a hermit crab drags his shell house over to the edge of an empty mussel shell. Tiny transparent shrimp tap minute legs against the tank glass. Mimmichogs dart to and fro, stirring up strange currents and a lone stickleback lurks behind the filter.

In the cases beyond the tank, the Museum has a nearly complete collection of the fish that live off the coast of Essex county. Rod and Reel fanciers as well as naturalists can study the enormous variety of life that lies unseen off our shore. But it is the microcosm of the tank that shows the ceaseless motion that throbs in the ocean waters.

Reynolds In Marine Exercises

Marine Air Reservist Major David B. Reynolds of 14 Cheever Cir., has completed two weeks of annual training duty on the coast of North Carolina.

Maj. Reynolds saw active duty at the large Marine Corps Air Station at Cherry Point and at smaller auxiliary airfields scattered over the peninsula in Pamlico Sound by Cape Hatteras.

Maj. Reynolds is a member of the Massachusetts Based 24th Staff Group of South Weymouth and was a major participant in this summer's major Marine Air Reserve exercise, High Intercept.

Each Marine Air Reservist spends one weekend a month with his unit, plus the annual training duty stint each summer at a major military facility in the U. S. or overseas. Many Reservists get the opportunity to train with regular Marines in NATO exercises in Europe.

High Intercept was the largest air-control exercise ever conducted by the all-Reserve 4th Marine Aircraft Wing, headquartered in New Orleans. There was a participation of some 1,500 Reservists in Operation High Intercept, coming from all parts of the East Coast and as far west as Texas, Colorado and California.

Reynolds is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David B. Reynolds, also of Andover.

Computer Degree At Merrimack

A major in computer science will be introduced as a new bachelor of science degree program in the Division of Science and Engineering at Merrimack College in September.

The program is structured so that a student will receive a basic background in math in preparation for the upper division courses in computer science. The major courses will begin in the freshman year with an introduction to the computer language, BASIC.

As the student progresses through the curriculum, he or she will be exposed to FORTRAN (another language) and possibly a third language, depending on the area of concentration.

In addition, there will be courses in the software and hardware areas, some of which will be required while others will be offered as electives.

The final feature of this program provides the student with flexibility in the area of specialization electives.

Some majors will wish to apply their background in computer science to the field of business, while others will choose electrical engineering, civil engineering, some basic science area, an area in social science, etc.

In order to provide a significance concentration in the area of specialization, the program allows for a minimum of four courses which can be taken by the student.

Dangerous To Carry Gas

Running out of gas is something that will probably happen at least once to every driver.

And, aside from the frustration of having to make the sometimes long trek to a service station, it's usually nothing serious. AAA says never to carry extra gasoline in your car — the chance of the gas igniting is too risky.

After purchasing a can of gas, carefully pour all of it into the tank. If the car won't start readily, try cranking the engine for about 15 seconds without pumping the accelerator. If the engine still won't turn over, pump the accelerator a few short times. It may take several tries to get the engine to start since, in most cases, the carburetor is void of gasoline.

Cardinals Clinch Town Title

By Rick Harrison

The two-time defending National League titlist Cardinals, who flew into the 1977 Town Championship with a 19-1 record and were subsequently beaten by the Yankees, turned the tables this summer and swept to the 1978 crown with consecutive victories over the White Sox in their best-of-3 series.

The brief series was marked by two completely different ballgames, both of which were played last week at the West Elementary field.

Manager Howie Larrabee's Cards opened with a wild-and-wooly 19-10 triumph, overcoming a 7-0 second inning deficit in the process.

Just 24 hours later the Cards clinched the Town Championship with a taut, well-played 2-1 victory over the Sox.

The results left the Cards, who were perennial Andover champs throughout the 1960's, with a 17-7 final record.

Manager Tom Comparato's White Sox, meanwhile, closed the season at 15-5 after dominating the American League by winning 15-of-18 games.

Cards, 19-10

The White Sox, taking advantage of Cards' starter Zack Apgar's early wildness, grabbed a 4-0 lead in the first and stretched that to 7-0 after two stanzas.

However, in Little League practically no lead is safe.

Sox' starter Rick Desmarais, a big righthander, suddenly ran into problems of his own as the Cardinals donned their hitting shoes and began to lash the ball all over the West field.

The champs struck back with four runs in the third, and took a brief 8-7 edge in the fourth before the White Sox tied it 8-8 in the home half.

The Cards put the game out of sight with a nine-run explosion in the fifth, and added a pair of tallies in the sixth. The Sox could only counter with single runs in both stanzas.

John Geiger, who relieved Apgar in the first frame, went the six inning distance. He walked five and struck out four.

Desmarais finished with five walks and four strikeouts as well.

The multi-faceted Cards' assault was powered by Ken Doherty and Geiger.

Doherty collected four RBI with a long three-run homer over the leftfield fence and a double. Ken's four-bagger in the third closed the gap to 7-4 and started the Cards believing in themselves.

John Geiger helped himself by contributing four straight safeties to the 17-hit champs' attack. Two of the hits were doubles, and Geiger drove home a pair of runs.

Brett Larrabee cracked a two-run double and single. It was his line drive two-bagger in the fifth that broke the 8-8 deadlock and put the Cards on top for good.

Todd Lawrie, who belted one of the champs' two regular season homeruns, drilled a long double and single for two runs.

Mike Surette lashed a pair of singles and chalked up one RBI, Zack Apgar spiked two singles for one RBI, Mark Grams banged a sharp RBI single, and Paul Tarro spanked a double and single.

Chris Comparato enjoyed a perfect 3-prevented further damage by throwing out Surette at the plate moments later.

The White Sox retaliated with their lone run in the fifth, chasing Tarro from the

at home trying to score the tying run on an infield grounder, and Grams whiffed the next batter to end the stanza.

The White Sox had mounted one other serious threat, jamming the bases on three walks in the top of the fourth. Tarro escaped with a strikeout.

In the bottom of the fifth the Cards' Brett Larrabee slammed a double to right-centerfield. Mark Grams, hitting behind the runner, stroked a ball towards right-field. But Crowninshield made a great stop and fired to third to erase Larrabee.

Mike Surette was the only player on either side with two hits, adding a single to his clutch RBI double, while Ken Doherty singled in the fifth for the Town champs.

The third Sox' safety was a single by Dave Jackson.

The defensive standouts, once again, were Jeff Crowninshield at second and mark Grams at catcher for the first four innings.

TOWNSMAN Sports

for-3 night for the White Sox, all singles, while catcher Charlie Ziegenbein rapped a double and single.

Dylan Callahan added two singles to the 10-hit Pale Hose offense, and Jeff Crowninshield hammered a double.

Despite the high score there was some excellent defensive play on both sides.

Mark Grams turned in a solid, heads-up game at catcher for the Cards, while Jeff Crowninshield handled several tough chances and started one fine doubleplay at second base for the Sox.

Cards, 2-1

Paul Tarro and Mark Grams combined talents for a three-hitter, and the Cards secured the title by scoring twice in the bottom of the fourth enroute to their 2-1 victory.

Winning pitcher Tarro worked the first four frames, surrendering two hits, walking five and striking out five. Grams hurled the last two innings, allowing one hit, walking one and whiffing four.

Dan Sheehan was the tough-luck losing chucker for the White Sox, tossing a five-hitter in a route-going performance. He walked two and didn't strike anyone out.

The two-run Cardinals' fourth started with a one-out walk to Paul Tarro. Pat Martin singled to centerfield, and when the ball was misplayed Tarro advanced to third and Martin to second base.

Scott Deery's infield out rescued Tarro with the first run, and then Mike Surette drove home the insurance tally with a solid double.

Sox' second baseman Jeff Crowninshield mound in the process. Sheehan singled, Crowninshield singled and Rick Desmarais walked to load the bases with one out.

Sheehan scored on a passed ball, which also moved the runners up to second and third. Crowninshield was then thrown out

Heidt, Foote Boost Ruthers Streak

By Rick Harrison

The Andover Babe Ruth baseball team continued to put together strong pitching, solid defense and timely hitting, as it stretched its undefeated string through 12 games earlier this week with consecutive 7-0 shutouts over North Lawrence and Prospect Hill.

The two victories practically assured Andover a berth in the post-season playoffs, as the locals record jumped to 14-6 in the Greater-Lawrence League and 15-9-2 overall.

The two shutouts, pitched by undefeated Fred Foote (6-0) and Bob Heidt (6-1) respectively, wre the sixth and seventh for the team this season. Heidt has hurled five shutouts and Foote Two.

It also gave Andover three straight shutouts, and extended the club's string of scoreless innings to 24 straight.

Heidt has surrendered only three earned runs in 59 innings for an 0.51 ERA, while Foote has allowed four in 48 innings for an 0.58 ERA.

Andover tried to extend those streaks last Tuesday night, after TOWNSMAN presstime, in a game against South Lawrence West.

Andover, 7-0

Righthander Fred Foote remained unbeaten, scattering six hits and firing his second straight shutout as Andover whitewashed North Lawrence, 7-0.

Foote walked three and struck out five during his latest mound gem, hiking his league record to 5-0 and his overall ledger to 6-0.

Foote had hurled 15 consecutive scoreless innings after this game, which was his fifth complete-game effort of the summer.

Foote has now permitted just four earned runs in 48 innings this season, giving him an outstanding 0.58 E.R.A.

Andover, after some questionable baserunning took it out of a potentially big first inning, staked Foote to a 3-0 lead in the second.

Jon Pelletier led with a single, stole second, took third on a wild pitch, and held his ground as Foote beat out a high, wind-blown infield hit. Rich Grimm's hard grounder to short broke through the fielder, scoring Pelletier and sending Foote to third base. Grimm stole second, and Ed Powers followed with a long two-run double to the leftfield fence at Mark Devlin Field.

The locals made it 4-0 in the third. Steve Rathbun led with a single and moved to second on Foote's sharp single down the left-field line.

Rathbun caught North Lawrence napping and stole third easily. With two down, Foote went to steal second and deliberately got caught in a rundown. As the NL fielders chased him around, Rathbun raced home with the run.

North Lawrence hurler Domingo Infante sailed through the next three innings, allowing only a two-out single to rightfield by Rich Grimm and a subsequent walk to Tim Grams in the sixth.

However, Andover strung together four hits in the top of the seventh to add three insurance runs.

Consecutive singles by Wayne Merola, Jake Powell and Bob Heidt accounted for the first run. Rathbun reached on a fielder's choice grounder, plating Powell, and Foote later singled home the third marker after a walk to Jim MacMillan.

Foote retired the last five batters he faced, but the shutout was in danger twice early in the game.

Mike Valentino stroked a one-out single in the second, Jose Torres walked, and with two down Frank DeJesus sent a grounder towards the middle. Shortstop Steve Rathbun knocked the ball down and fired a strike to catcher Jake Powell, who applied the tag on the sliding Valentino.

NL loaded the bases with no one out in the third, as a walk to Dave Tardugno was followed by singles from Valentino and Torres.

Foote bore down and escaped neatly as Angelo Davilla fanned, DeJesus popped out, and Jose Costa grounded out to Rathbun at shortstop.

Foote led the Andover 11-hit offense with 3-for-4 and three RBI, while Rathbun went 2-for-4 and scored twice.

Powers contributed the two-run double, and he also skied out to deep left, while the other safeties were by Merola, Powell, Heidt, Pelletier and Grimm.

Mike Valentino spiked a pair of singles for North Lawrence.

Rathbun played a steady game at short with four assists, while Foote had five assists from the mound.

The defensive play of the game was made by leftfielder Tim Grams, who ended a long run with a superb one-handed catch of a Tardugno fly down the line to end the fifth inning.

The victory enabled Andover to capture the season's series from NL, 3-1.

Andover, 7-0

Bob Heidt, extending his personal shutout string through 20 consecutive innings, fired a three-hitter, walked four and struck out seven in the 7-0 conquest of Prospect Hill at Mount Vernon Park.

His five shutouts in a season are a new Andover Babe Ruth team record, as are the seven shutouts by Heidt and Foote combined.

Paul Bell was the loser, allowing six hits, walking eight and whiffing four.

Andover took a 1-0 lead in the top of the first, but more careless baserunning prevented a bigger inning when a runner was picked off third.

Jake Powell scored the run when he singled, stole second, and raced home on Heidt's RBI single.

Jon Pelletier was safe on a two-base outfield error, but Bell avoided further trouble with a strikeout.

The locals paraded nine batters to the plate in the second, scoring three runs and leaving the bases loaded.

Rich Grimm doubled to lead the attack,

Booters Finish Third

The Andover Hockey Shop Soccer Team completed its summer season in the Eastern Mass. Soccer League with four wins, three ties and three losses. Andover ended the season in third place behind Wakefield and MASCO.

The Hockey Shop team also played an exhibition game with a group of American Field Service students from Madrid, Spain. Both teams had a friendly game with 'soccer' being the international language spoken. The A.F.S. students prevailed 3-1, demonstrating some outstanding individual skills.

On Friday, Aug. 4, there will be a league all-star game to be played in Concord. The members of the Hockey Shop team selected to participate are: Greg Moss, fullback; Dan Merrigan, fullback, and Tom Rourke, midfielder.

Sports Shop Holds Lead

A come-from-behind 2-1 victory assisted by a key sixth inning error enabled the Autohaus team to hand the Howe Agency its first loss since late May and place the Sports shop into sole possession of first place in the Recreation/Community School's Men's Softball League.

clicked off two doubleplays, the second of which saved a run in the sixth.

Phil Messina led the stanza with a line drive triple to left-centerfield. Kevin Lacroix then lofted a high fly to rightfield, which Emmert corraled. Messina tried to tag up and come home, but Emmert fired a perfect strike to catcher Wayne Merola for the DP.

Messina also reached third base in the first inning when he walked, stole second, and advanced on Lacroix' flyout to rightfield.

Bob D'Urso then skied to Pelletier in center, and he fired a strike to home as Messina held his ground at third. Bell lined out to Steve Rathbun at shortstop to end the inning.

The other Andover twin-killing was a crisp 4-6-3 job from Jeff Demers to Rathbun to Fred Foote.

Powell and Heidt led the Andover offense with two hits and two RBI apiece. Powell, Merola and Grams scored two runs each.

Milligan To Chair Car Event

Andover resident Don Milligan is one of twenty car buffs coordinating this year's "The Busters," the annual auto meet of the Veteran Motor Car Club of America's New England Region. The meet and an old-fashioned flea market will be held Sunday, Aug. 6, on the grounds of McLean Hospital in Belmont.

Mr. Milligan's foreign sportscars will be among the estimated 200 vehicles — ranging from tiller-steered carriages to modern day special-interest collectibles — expected to compete in the meet.

"The Dusters" will begin at 9 a.m. and continue on until 4 p.m. Refreshments will be available. Anyone wishing to register an auto can do so at the meet, and vendors wishing to display at the flea market can make arrangements by calling Phil Iorio.

Aug. 5

The cornerstone of the Statue of Liberty was laid Aug. 5, 1884.

Although they didn't reach base, 13-year-old players Demers, Matt Wells and Chris O'Reilly all hit the ball solidly.

All-Stars

Andy Emmert, Jeff Demers and Matt Wells are currently in South Weymouth, representing Andover on the Greater-Lawrence League 13-year-old All-Star team which is competing in the State Tournament.

The G-L squad was scheduled to open play last night against Walpole in the single-elimination tourney.

A victory would have advanced them into the semifinals tomorrow.

Strangely enough, we really don't live forever.

Wouldn't it be nice if we could, though? We might eliminate a lot of anxiety and responsibility. Things like providing for the family, getting the children through college. Or maybe, how we can pay off a mortgage or buy out a business partner.

Since we don't know how many years we'll get, doesn't it make sense to protect the important things in life right now?

Brooks Theater Presents 'Equus'

'Equus', the internationally acclaimed psychological drama will be presented at the Theatre at Brooks on Aug. 3,4,5,6,10,11,12 and 13.

'Equus' is the sizzling study of a seventeen-year-old boy's misplaced passion. Under the watchful eyes of the psychiatrist and the audience, Alan, the young boy, is led step by step through the painful process of reliving his nightmares as well as his realities. The question most often asked is why would a young boy stab the eyes out of six horses. The audience is captivated as each scene unfolds another painful and sensual event.

Richard Seguin, last seen as Barney Cashman in 'Last Of The Red Hot Lovers,' at the Theatre at Brooks, plays the doctor, Martin Dysart, who attempts to cure the boy but awakens in himself his own loneliness and lethargy. Jimmy Spader brings to life the anguished and frightened boy. It is in the startling contrast of these two figures, that the truth comes out. Paul E. Hart portrays the stern and distant father, with Nona Winnick playing the neurotic mother.

Jean Spader brings to life Hester Saloman, the Magistrate and only sympathetic person who recognizes the depth of Alan's suffering. Jill Mason, played by Diane Montella, is the catalyst that arouses the sexual passion of an adolescent boy. Tom Vittioroso becomes 'Equus,' the haunting, jealous god. This play is not for children.

The Theatre at Brooks is the first

Completes Course In Spanish

"Que esta la problema? Quiero ayudar."

Translated, the Spanish words mean, "What's the problem? I want to help." And after four weeks of intensive study of Spanish, Constance Scanlon, a nurse at Lawrence Hospital, will be able to do just that, but now in Spanish as well as in English.

Ms. Scanlon, of Osgood St., Andover, was one of 24 participants in a month-long Spanish Institute held at Regis College in Weston aimed at training public service personnel involved with the Spanish speaking community in conversational Spanish and acquainting them with Hispanic culture.

The training program, held at Regis this summer for the eleventh time, is highly selective and respected for the contribution it makes to society as a whole. When he visited the campus last year, Gov. Michael Dukakis praised the Spanish Institute as a prime example of the type of socially-oriented program colleges and universities can engage in.

While studying at Regis, Ms. Scanlon and her fellow students conversed with one another solely in Spanish at all times, even at the dinner table. The students — teachers, lawyers, police officers and nurses — boarded at the college during the week and went home on weekends.

The classes, taught by Berlitz language teachers, were supplemented by cultural programs and lectures relating to Hispanic culture.

Ms. Scanlon and the 23 other students received certificates from Regis College and the Berlitz School of Languages during graduation ceremonies held last week.

Lets Talk About Oils

Our natural (cold-pressed, unrefined) oils differ greatly from heavily processed (refined, deodorized, bleached) oils in appearance, smell and taste; as a result they are quite different in nutritional value. Natural oils still contain Chlorophyll, Lecithin, Vitamin E, Vitamin A and minerals such as copper, magnesium calcium and iron. Processed oils have very little left in them except slipperiness and BHA and BHT.

The Earthfood Store sells six varieties of natural oils in bottles and two in bulk.

$3.5M Project At Academy

23

Construction Underway

Highland Road, between Salem street and the Case Cage area has been closed permanently to provide for the $3.5 million expansion and renovation to Phillips Academy physical education and gym facilities.

Work is well underway on the $3.5 million in improvements to physical education facilities at Phillips Academy.

Expansion of the gym, construction of an enclosed bridge to the Case cage and an addition for women's phys. ed facilities are part of the overall project which started a year ago with renovation of the cage.

To accommodate the new construction, Highland Road, between Salem street and Dwight Road, has been closed off and a chain link fence and gate installed.

The academy owns Highland Road in the particular area and now has closed it off permanently. Utility pipes line the particular section of the roadway and excavation work for the new additions is also underway.

The academy will be placing an addition for physical education activities for women and girls at the lower level of the new addition.

There will also be large scale renovation of the existing gymnasium to provide for both male and female physical education programs.

Dedicatory exercises were held this past year for the Case Memorial cage renovations which were completed as a part of the school's bicentennial program.

The case will now be joined to the gymnasium facility by an enclosed bridge.

The closing of the section of Highland road will provide for the extensive physical education and athletic complex which will result from the completion of the current work.

Plan Arouses Concern

Selectmen have registered their opposition to proposed altering of Partridge Hill development to permit Belmont park subdivision to be created.

The Belmont Hill subdivision proposal will be before the planning board at a public hearing on Monday at 9:30 p.m. in town hall.

What is proposed is the altering of the Partridge Hill cul-de-sac, to provide a roadway into Belmont park. This would provide better access to the latter subdivision.

Selectmen in their letter to the planning board on the proposal, indicated that the board was concerned that such a proposal would derogate from sound planning

Contract Awarded

Richard Nabydowski, 76 Blanchard St., Andover, will be the new contractor for picking up recyclable material.

Nabydowski provided the town with a certified check this week, while awaiting issuance of a performance bond, to carry out stipulations of the new contract.

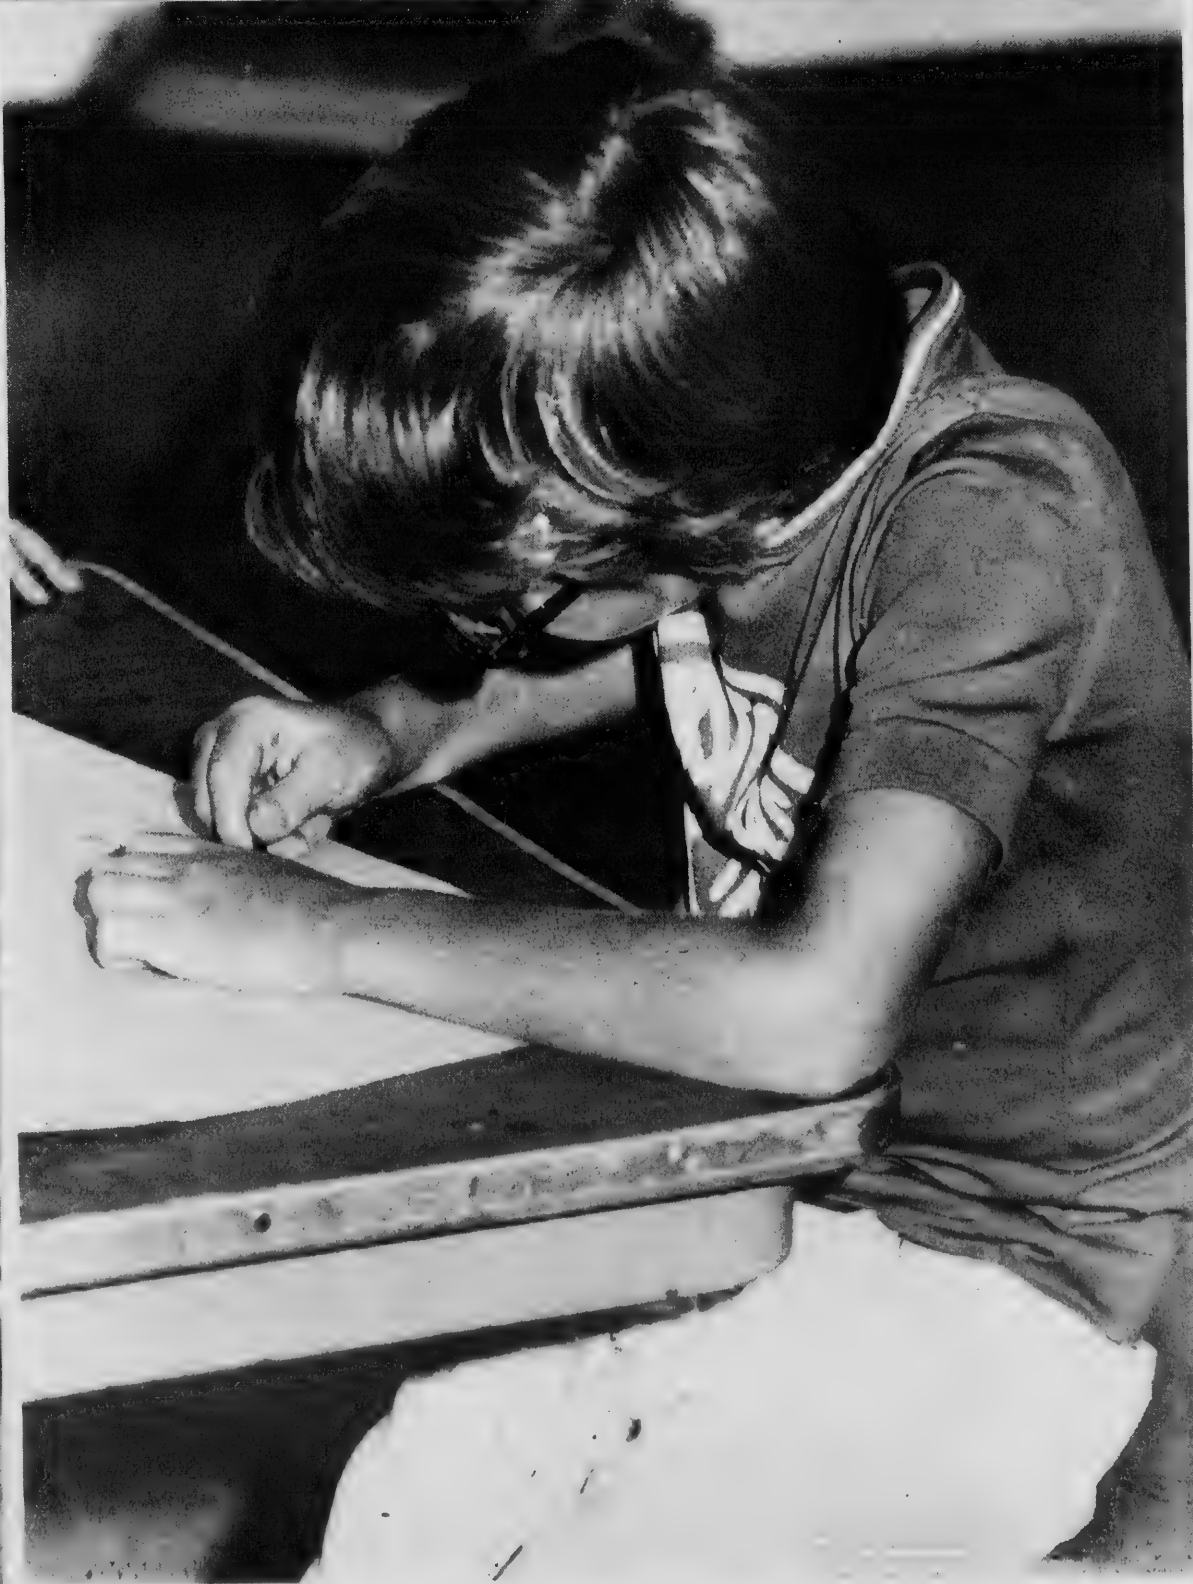

The Andover man will begin work this week and a new recycling schedule card will be issued shortly.

In accordance with the terms of the new pact, the contractor will begin his route at 7:30 a.m., which is half-hour earlier than the former collection agent. Residents participating in the recycling program are advised to be aware of the new schedule and have materials at the curb earlier than in the past.

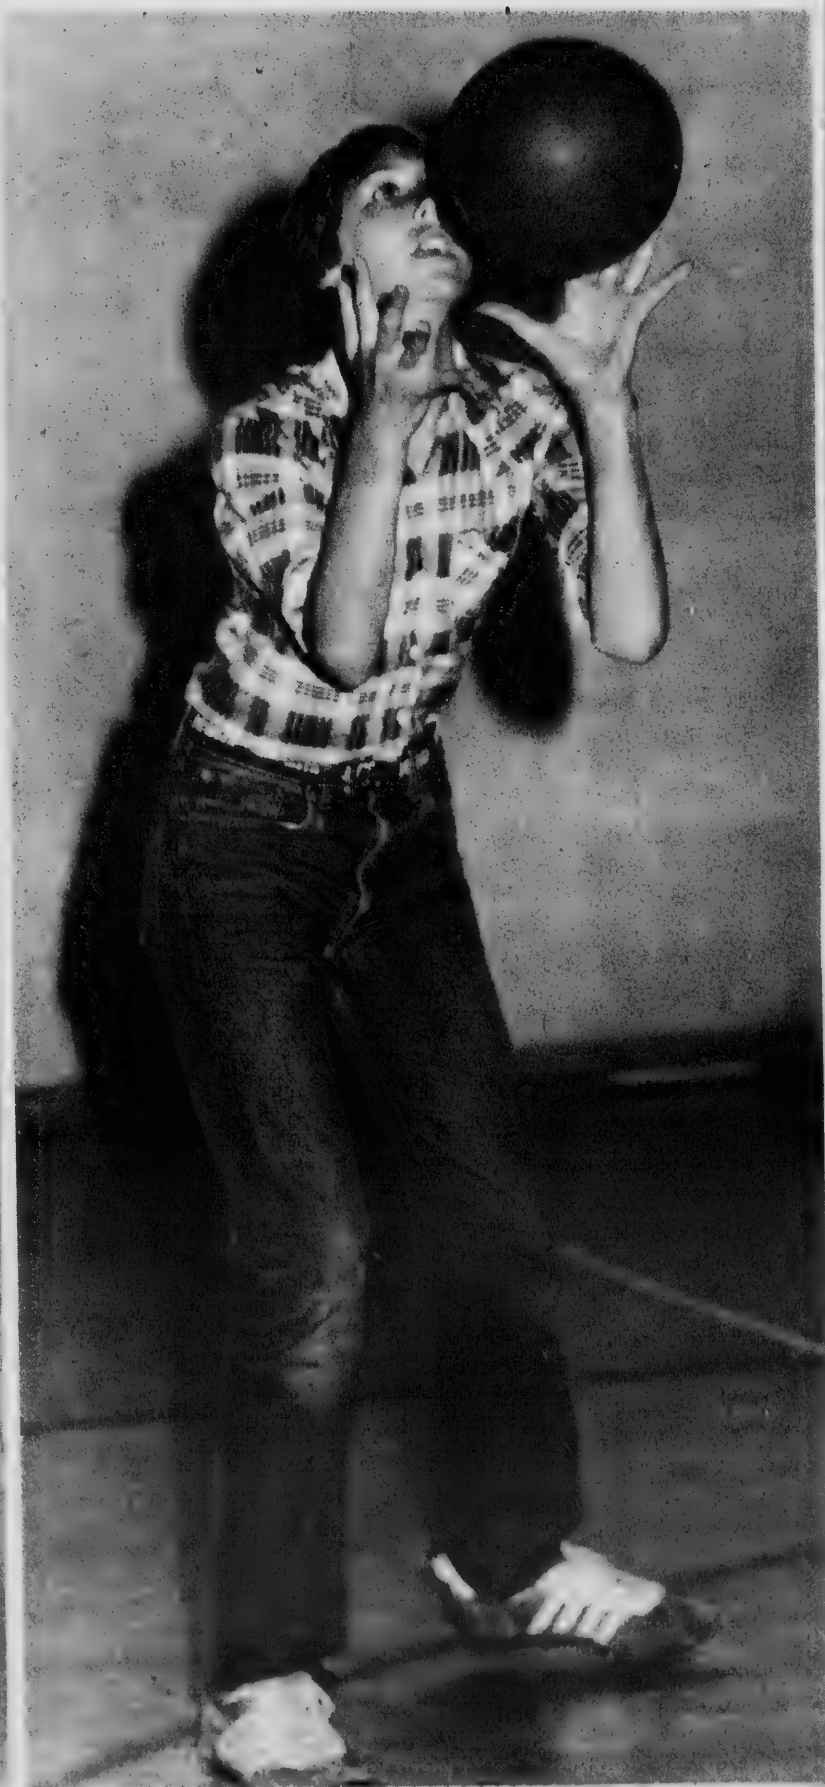

The Barrels Make Their Appearance

The famed orange and white stripes barrels which adorn Massachusetts highways, have made their appearance on Main street, Andover, as state Department of Public Works crews alter the School-Main street intersection. The work is part of the overall TOPICS program planned for Main street from the academy to Shawsheen square. This portion of the project will result in School street being altered to become a sharp turn and stop at Main street, rather than the yield pattern as previous. There will also be pedestrian activated lights at the intersection.

What To Do On A Rainy Day

Focus On Shawsheen

Andover activities, classed under the heading of "As The Pendulum Swings," finds the weight from the fulcrum focusing quite steadily on Shawsheen these days.

With water problems suffered by the village residents hopefully cured for the time being, after over a year of effort, we find attention being given to the Sacred Heart property, purchased by the town this past year.

Actually the funds for purchase of the Sacred Heart fields was approved by town meeting a couple of years ago, as part of a package to allow the Brothers of the Sacred Heart to sell their building.

When the town was apprised of the need to purchase the fields, and possibly the Cardinal Cushing Gymnasium, voters were told of the usefulness of the property to enhance the town's recreational needs, and the preservation of open space.

Now, it has been determined that basically all the town really did was get the property out of possible development as house lots.

Well, there were plans some time ago to apply for federal and state aid to help develop the fields of recreational use, but apparently the coffers at the higher levels are either empty, or bureaucrats are not looking kindly upon Andover's recreational plans.

In any case, selectmen want Town Manager Jared S.A. Clark to come up with some figures as to what might be anticipated if the town were to go forward with development of the fields and use the gymnasium building on Haverhill street, which by the way, is used as the precinct polling location.

Meanwhile, soccer enthusiasts are anxious to learn if they will be able to use the fields for their program in the fall, with the town manager estimating $3,500 will be needed just for preservation of the present turf.

The $3,500 will be requested from the Finance Committee, which, like the selectmen, is interested in seeing an overall plan for Shawsheen before committing any funds.

First of all, we think that the expenditure of this amount of money is justified, if for no other reason than to preserve what is already there, some grass, badly in need of maintenance.

Secondly, with over 850 soccer players and accompanying parents, it seems wise to provide some sort of reasonable playing surface.

Thirdly, if the town considered the investment of a few hundred thousand dollars to obtain the property as being worthwhile, it is reasonable to assume these same voters were inclined to see the fields used for other than passive recreation, a classification to which much of our conservation acquisitions have fallen.

It would seem possible to provide some minimum funding to get the field in shape for the fall and some additional funds next year to make some improvements—no heroics, just suitable playfields.

There are 21 acres contained within the town's Shawsheen property holdings, which could well be put to use at minimum cost, and maximum enjoyment for the young people of the community.

We also like the manager's idea of possibly asking sponsoring organizations to assist in the town's providing of facilities. He has suggested that possibly a policy he developed where sponsoring organizations, such as soccer associations, little leagues, etc., participate by providing such service as lining the fields.

This also seems a reasonable request, and really amounts to parents pitching in to help with the organized recreational programs being conducted for their youngsters.

The gymnasium building appears to be another problem area, with some selectmen wondering if the town actually needs the structure.

Since it became part of the package, when a prospective buyer dropped interest in its purchase during the negotiating stages, it would appear in the town's interests to retain it as a useful municipal facility.

Expansion of the town's services has dictated a need for additional space. The gymnasium building, from all appearances a sound structure, would accomodate such needs.

From a cost effectiveness standpoint, it makes sense to utilize the facility for town needs, with possibly a little renovation and some routine maintenance, rather than face new construction, in view of the town's ownership of the building.

In view of the $10 million school construction item facing the town, the gym building takes on an even more economically pleasing alternative for municipal use.

JACK ANDERSON WITH JOE SPEAR WEEKLY SPECIAL

Fraud, Thievery Discovered in GSA President Calls for a Crackdown

WASHINGTON — President Carter has called for a crackdown on fraud, graft and thievery in the General Services Administration. He has written a terse, confidential memo, declaring that he is "deeply disturbed" over the GSA scandal.

The president stated bluntly that "an extremely serious breach of the public trust has occurred." He described it as a "pattern of misconduct ranging over several years."

The GSA is the government's housekeeping agency. It spends about $4 billion a year for supplies and upkeep. It purchases almost everything the government uses, from office buildings to paper clips.

Every night, the GSA dispatches an army of moppers and scrubbers into government buildings. They are armed with 12-quart buckets and two-pound mops. Others, with suction cups mounted on long poles, change light bulbs that have burned out during the day.

According to one confidential estimate, contractors and employees have been cheating the GSA out of a staggering $90 million a year. Investigators have found criminal violations in Baltimore, Washington and New York City. Several indictments are expected.

The investigators have found examples of contractors getting paid for maintenance work they didn't do. Other contractors have collected for supplies they didn't provide. These companies got away with cheating the taxpayers, allegedly, by handing out cash and gifts to GSA employees.

Last year, the GSA hadn't spent its full budget as the end of the fiscal year approached. Since Congress has a habit of cutting the budgets of agencies that do not spend their money, GSA officials allegedly spread the word to maintenance crews to get busy and spend the surplus. So allegedly, workers were paid overtime rates, and careless contracts were awarded until the budget was used up.

The investigation was ordered by GSA chief Joel Solomon within a month after he took over the agency. He recently reported the preliminary findings to President Carter.

The president responded with a memo saying "corruption in government is intolerable" and pledging "I will back you fully." Added the president: "I am asking the Attorney General to provide whatever assistance you may require."

Clergy Crunch: Some Army GIs cannot practice the religion of their choice because of a chaplain shortage. There aren't enough Catholic, Jewish and Eastern Orthodox chaplains to handle all the spiritual chores. The Army is even short a few Protestant chaplains.

The Army's promotion policy is at fault. There aren't too many high-ranking positions available for chaplains. Under the Army's promotion system, an officer is discharged if he is evaluated twice without being promoted. Thus, hundreds of chaplains have been dropped during the past decade.

A few days ago, Terence Cardinal Cooke, the military vicar for thousands of Catholic servicemen, dispatched a personal emissary to meet with Pentagon officials. All the cardinal got out of the Pentagon was a promise to hold more meetings.

On the day the cardinal's emissary arrived in Washington, meanwhile, the Pentagon announced that 19 more chaplains of various faiths had been passed over for promotion.

Retired Attorneys: President Carter promised he would choose U.S. attorneys by merit, not politics. We have done a little checking. Apparently he has found merit only in Democrats.

So far, 64 Republican U.S. attorneys have been replaced by Carter. He has kept only one Republican. And he has hired one more.

So many prosecutors have been fired that they have formed a club. They call it the National Association of Former United States Attorneys.

The founder, Jim Young, a fired U.S. attorney from Indiana, says the organization is open to anyone who has received a presidential appointment as U.S. attorney. But most of them just happen to be freshly fired Republicans.

Friendly Advice: Oregon Sen. Mark Hatfield will soon become the No. 1 Republican on the Senate Energy Committee. This is the committee, of course, that has jurisdiction over Arab oil interests.

It turns out that the senator's wife, Antoinette Hatfield, works for a Washington real estate firm. The firm is favored by wealthy Arabs who are looking for homes in the Washington area.

One of our reporters called Mrs. Hatfield for her comment. She said: "I hope God will lead you to a more honorable profession."

Headlines and Footnotes: Thanks to the Mexican poppy eradication program, the quality of Mexican heroin has dropped so drastically that police chemists are having trouble isolating the heroin in their samples ... The White House has sent out a booklet about the SALT talks that allegedly reduces the complex subject to "plain English." A sample: "The agreed overall limit for each side was 2,400 ICBM's, SLBM's, heavy bombers, and air to surface ballistic missiles (ASBM's)" ... The Federal Trade Commission will soon warn manufacturers of down vests and parkas to stop stuffing their products with duck plumage and chicken feathers ... The fastest plane in the U.S. Customs Service's fleet of 63 aircraft is a Lear Jet that was seized from fugitive businessman Robert Vesco several years ago.

The measure has been labeled a "milestone for both real estate professionals and consumers in the Commonwealth" by its chief advocate, the Massachusetts Association of Realtors. It was filed in the House of Representatives by Representative Andrew J. Rogers (D-Framingham) and in the Senate by Senator Edward L. Burke (D-Framingham).

Harris Speaker In Boston

Selectman Edward M. Harris, of Andover, was the speaker at a gathering of patriotic societies held at the Granary Burial Ground in Boston on the 4th of July. The purpose was to honor the three Massachusetts men, who as Signers of the Declaration of Independence are buried in that cemetery, one of the oldest in Boston. These men are John Hancock, Samuel Adams and Robert Treat Paine.

The ceremony, this year, on the 202d anniversary of the adoption of the Declaration, was sponsored by the Massachusetts Society, Daughters of the American Revolution. State officers of the D.A.R., as well as those of the Children of the American Revolution were present as well as a small crowd of members of these and other patriotic societies in spite of the continual rainfall.

The occasion closed with decorating the three graves with flowers and small American flags. Among those participating in decorating the graves was Martha B. Harris, of Andover, State Librarian. C.A.R.

With respect to the Sacred Heart fields, there had been no decision by the town as to commitment of the fields or providing funds for maintenance.

The bare minimum needed to have the fields available for fall use would be $3,500 which would provide for some mowing, fertilizing, etc., which would prevent the turf from any further destruction.

A sprinkler system is needed for irrigation, just to hold the grass that is there, the manager said.

The manager also said that some policy decisions would be needed by the board as to how sponsoring organizations can assist the town in providing recreational facilities, such as lining the fields, putting up nets and backstops, etc.

Selectman James Abramson concurred, feeling that there is a need for a policy which outlines what the town provides and what organizations can reasonably contribute in the way of assistance.

Selectman Susan T. Poore said she recognized the need, but felt the dollar amounts for work on the field were high. She suggested the overall matter of Shawsheen fields and the Cardinal Cushing gym be the subject of a conference session. Mrs. Poore felt the FinCom would not look kindly on the $3,500 request.

The Town Manager Clark said he could understand the feelings of Mrs. Poore, but felt the need is there for the money to be provided for this fall.

"If the Finance Committee wishes to substitute its judgement, then so be it. But this is the money we need to provide minimum maintenance this fall and not have the place turn into a dust bowl."

Selectmen then unanimously agreed to support the manager's transfer request and thus possibly provide sufficient facilities for the youth soccer program.

Oil Consumption

This year the U.S. is expected to consume almost 20 million barrels of oil a day. According to The World Almanac, only 10 million barrels of oil a day are produced domestically.

By 1985, it is estimated consumption will increase to 25.6 barrels a day, with domestic production rising to 11 million barrels.

HOME — BLUE CHIP INVESTMENT

Despite all the talk these days about protecting your dollar, sound investments and hedges against inflation, the purchase of a home is seldom mentioned. Yet, a well-built home in a good neighborhood is one of the best hedges against inflation your money can buy.

In recent years of inflation, for example, home and land values have more than kept abreast of the general rise in prices. This means your home investment puts you considerably ahead of the game financially, not to mention the pride and pleasure that home ownership can bring you.

There is no reason to believe that this situation will change in the near (or not so near) future. The government's tight money policies have put a crimp into single family home building starts during the past few years but the demand for these homes is constantly increasing. So, it looks like prices will continue to rise. Add to this the tax benefits of home ownership which allow you to keep more of what you earn. Look for the best home your money can buy and enjoy your inflation hedge.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at THE HOWE AGENCY, 4 Punchard Ave., Andover. Phone: 475-5100. We're here to help.

Plan

procedures exercised by planners and would cause a dramatic change in the character of Partridge Hill.

It is pointed out in the letter, that residents of Partridge Hill had purchased the property with the inducement of its cul-de-sac attributes. Any change would constitute a major alteration in the nature of the development.

When the matter was discussed at prior meeting of the board, the town manager also pointed that a change could also have an effect on the valuation of the property, both from an assessment standpoint and resale value.

The Belmont Hill subdivision is being petitioned by Yvon Cormier Construction Co. of Bedford. Some of the Partridge Hill residents had received various inducements, such as construction of tennis courts and playgrounds, to supposed offers of financial returns to allow the construction of the new roadway to Belmont Park.

The roadway into Belmont Park off Partridge Hill, would permit better access to the proposed development from Route 93. Partridge Hill is off Dascomb Road a short distance from the Route 93 interchange.

The only other access would be through Ballardvale to Tewksbury street.

Chairman Albert Cole, Jr., of the selectmen, said that he had talked with David M. Erickson, planning board chairman, stating that the board would be expressing its concern to the planners. Cole also said that the letter was not meant to effect the board's consideration of the petition in any way, but merely to indicate its concern.

It is believed that the proposal to use Partridge Hill could not be approved due to the cul-de-sac or cluster development of the area. Cluster zoning allows for green areas to be maintained and prohibits through streets from being developed.

Conservation commission members may also have some control over the Belmont Park proposal due to its wetlands act enforcement.

Down The Years

three church league teams.

Patrick Garvey, 5 Chapman Ave., has secured additional signatures thus insuring that a special town meeting will be called for Aug. 24 to act on the continuance of rent control.

Firemen responded to calls for mutual aid this week, the first to assist at the Lowell Street school fire in Lawrence, the second to assist in North Reading.

Kenneth McKiniry, social studies teacher at Pynchard High, has applied for the principalship at Tenney High school in Methuen.

The senior life saving course offered at Pomps Pond by Lifeguard Bill Mahoney, will end on Friday of this week and no more lessons in that class will be conducted this summer.

Town Topics

for the time being there is a wait-and-see attitude.

Dirty water conditions have plagued the Shawsheen area for over a year. The foam-plug cleaning was the final attempt to clear the problem, with the only other alternative, a million dollar pipe replacement program.

Stables

permit any significant stable-type operation.

Clark said the intent of the bylaw would be to maintain the town's character as a basically residential community.

Since those in violation of present bylaws would have 180 days in which to comply with the cease and desist order, time provided for the new bylaw to be approved and take effect, in order to retain some of the current stable operations, which are not basically a business-oriented operation.

Hancock Tour

Exhibits at the John Hancock Observatory include "Boston 1775," a 15-minute audio-visual production of key events leading to the Revolution, and "City Flight," a color film of a helicopter flight over Boston, illustrating landmarks. Mon-
